11.1 The Customer is subject to the provisions of the articles of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

11.2 Where the Supplier acts as a personal data processor the Company confirms that they:

(i) will only act on the written instructions of the controller (unless required by law to act without such instructions);

(ii) will ensure that employees processing the data are subject to a duty of confidence;

(iii) will take appropriate measures to ensure the security of the data processing;

(iv) will only engage a sub-processor with the prior written consent of the data controller and only engage with such under a written contract to comply with Article 28 of the GDPR;

(v) will assist the data controller in providing subject access and allow data subjects to exercise their rights under the GDPR;

(vi) will assist the data controller in meeting its GDPR obligations in relation to the security of processing, the notification of personal data breaches and data protection impact assessments;

(vii) will delete or return all personal data to the controller as requested at the end of the contract;

(viii) will make available all information necessary and submit to audit and inspection to demonstrate compliance with obligations laid down by Article 28 of the GDPR and tell the controller immediately if it is asked to do something infringing the GDPR or other data protection law of the EU or a member state.

11.3 Where the Company acts as the data controller it requires the provisions of 12.2 to be adhered to by the relevant data processor.

11.4 The Customer agrees to keep all Confidential Information confidential, to disclose it only to its employees that need to know it and to use it exclusively for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement. This Clause shall not apply to information that the Customer can prove:

11.4.1 Is in the public domain otherwise than by the Customer's breach;

11.4.2 It already had in its possession prior to obtaining the information directly or indirectly from the Company; or 11.4.3 A third party subsequently disclosed to the Customer free of restrictions on disclosure and use. This Clause shall survive for three (3) years from when the Customer acquired that Confidential Information from the Company.

11.5 The Customer may disclose Confidential Information if required to do so by law, regulation or rules of a securities exchange or other regulatory authority, but only to the extent of the relevant requirement. The Customer shall promptly inform the Company of the requirement and will co-operate with the Company in the disclosure.

11.6 The use of any information may be subject to (and therefore the Customer shall comply with) the General Data Protection regulations, EU Data Protection Directives and The Telecommunications (Data Protection and Privacy) Regulations 1999. The Supplier reserves the right to withhold Calling Line Identification if it believes that the Customer has failed to comply with this Clause or the Supplier receives a complaint from any relevant authority.

11.7 Our Privacy Policy describes the types of information we may hold under this contract and why this information is held. Our Privacy Policy is disclosed on our website and may be updated from time to time.

12.0 LIMITATIONS AND LIABILITY

12.1 Except as otherwise expressly set out in this Agreement, the Company provides no warranties, conditions, guarantees, undertakings or term expressed or implied, as to the condition or quality of service and all such warranties, conditions or guarantees implied by or expressly incorporated as a result of custom and practice, statute, common law or otherwise are hereby expressly excluded so far as permitted by law. The Company's duty in performing any obligations under this Agreement is only to exercise reasonable care and skill of a reasonably competent communications provider.

12.2 Neither party excludes or limits any liability for death or personal injury.

12.3 The liability of The Company in respect of breaches of this Agreement or of any other duty to the Customer or for negligence in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement shall be limited to the value of charges for the minimum period referred to herein.

12.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, but subject to clause 12.2, the Company shall not be liable to the Customer as expressed, implied or otherwise for loss of profits, business, revenue, data, goodwill, anticipated savings, direct or indirect consequential loss or damage.

12.5 Each party agrees that the limitations of liability contained in this clause have been agreed between the parties in the context of the other provisions of this Agreement and satisfy the requirement of reasonableness within the meaning of subsection 2(2) and Section 11 of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977.

12.6 If for any reason this limit is found to be unlawful or invalid by a Court of appropriate jurisdiction, the Company's entire liability as referred to in this clause shall not exceed £1,000,000 for any one incident or series of incidents during the term of this Agreement.

13.0 FRAUD

13.1 For the avoidance of any doubt, the Customer responsibilities include but are not limited to;

(i) Secure implementation and management of their systems including any hardware not provided by the Supplier such as Firewalls or PBX.

(ii) Maintaining security and confidentiality of authentication details for online service portals and other services.

(iii) Mitigate exposure to any suspected or known security breach by resetting passwords, requesting that accounts are disabled and reporting the incident to the Supplier

13.2 The Customer accepts full and complete liability for any costs incurred as a result of fraud.

13.3 The Supplier recommends the Customer obtains professional security advice with regard to the equipment and Services provided.

14.0 FORCE MAJEURE

14.1 Neither party shall be liable in damages or have the right to terminate this Agreement for any delay or default in performing hereunder if such delay or default is caused by conditions beyond its control including, but not limited to Acts of God, Government restrictions (including the denial or cancellation of any export or other necessary license), wars, insurrections and/or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the party whose performance is affected.

14.2 Neither party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performance under this Agreement (other than for delay in the payment of money due and payable hereunder) to the extent said failures or delays are proximately caused by causes beyond that party's reasonable control and occurring without its fault or negligence, including, without limitation, failure of suppliers, subcontractors, and carriers, or party to substantially meet its performance obligations under this Agreement, provided that, as a condition to the claim of non-liability, the party experiencing the difficulty shall give the other prompt written notice, with full details following the occurrence of the cause relied upon.

15.0 TERMINATION

15.1 Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately by written notice if any party commits a breach of this Agreement that is not capable of being remedied.

15.2 Either party may serve written notice requiring the other party to remedy the breach within thirty days of receipt of the written notice of the breach and in default, the party serving the notice to remedy may immediately terminate this Agreement without further notice.

15.3 Either party may immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice if the other party commits an act of bankruptcy or goes into or is put into liquidation or is placed in administration (other than solely for the purposes of reconstruction or bone fide amalgamation) or the other party suffers seizure of any of its property for non-payment of monies owing.

15.4 A Force Majeure continues for a period of more than 3 months.

15.5 The supplier may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by giving the Customer written notice and then payment is due immediately from the Customer for the entirety of the minimum period or if the minimum period has expired then payment is due up to the anniversary of the following year of cover if:

15.5.1 any maintenance, repair, replacement, alteration or addition be made to the Equipment other than by the supplier or its authorised installer;

15.5.2 if the Customer misuses or abuses the Equipment;

15.5.3 the service charge is unpaid for seven days or more.
